

SUKKOT JEW-LIBS

By Saul Kaiserman, Director of Lifelong Learning

REVIEW OF A NEW TV SHOW

As all of us know, the majority of _____ programs on television today are
ADJECTIVE

_____ news shows. Tonight, a new _____ called
ADJECTIVE NOUN

“The _____ Sukkah of the _____ People” makes
ADJECTIVE ADJECTIVE

its debut. It will be on the _____ network at _____ o'clock.
THREE LETTERS OF THE ALPHABET NUMBER

Part history and part _____, tonight’s episode follows the _____ NOUN ADJECTIVE

adventures of four _____ _____ who
ADJECTIVE PLURAL NOUN

_____ a sukkah in the land of _____, while
VERB (PRESENT TENSE) PLACE

they are _____ in the desert for _____ years. Although the VERB ENDING IN “ING” NUMBER

writing is _____, the directing is _____, and the actors
ADJECTIVE ADJECTIVE

are a bunch of _____, there are moments in the show that you will
PLURAL NOUN

_____ about for days. Our rating: Three _____.
VERB (PRESENT TENSE) PLURAL NOUN