Crown of Torah Part II (Pirkei Avot 1:18, 2:7, 3:2b, 1:6, 1:15)

Ben Steinberg

By three things is the world sustained: Truth, Justice and Peace.

The more Torah, the more life; the more study, the more wisdom; the more counsel, the more understanding; the more charity, the more peace.

When two people sit together and words of Torah are spoken between them, the Divine Presence rests between them.

Find yourself a teacher, get yourself a friend.

Make your study of Torah a fixed habit. Say little, do much.

V'ahavta (Deuteronomy 6:5-9 Numbers 15:40-41a)

Paul Ben-Haim

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. Take to heart these instructions with which I charge you this day. Impress them upon your children. Recite them when you stay at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you get up. Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them serve as a symbol on your forehead; inscribe them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Thus you shall be reminded to observe all My commandments and to be holy to your God. I the Lord am your God.
